JOHN ANDERSON IS DEAD; DEMISE COMES SUDDENLY.

PIONEER OF VOLUSIA COUNTY
DIES OF ACUTE INDIGESTION.

BODY OF BUILDER OF HOTEL OR-MOND SENT MONDAY AFTER-NOON TO HIS OLD HOME AT PORTLAND, MAINE.

John Anderson is dead and Volusia county has lost one of its most progressive pioneers.

The death of Mr. Anderson, who was one of the earliest settlers at Ormond, occurred shortly after 1 o'clock Sunday morning at Ormond, the cause of demise being acute indigestion.

For several years Mr. Anderson
has been troubled with indigestion,
suffering with occasional attacks,
and complained of another attack Friday morning. The attack was accompanied with severe pain, but he soon became relieved, and was apparently in good physical condition, when he suffered another Saturday. Later in the day he seemed to be relieved and at 11 o'clock Saturday night he asked for a cup of tea, which he drank. Two hours later he died.

The announcement of Mr. Anderson's death Sunday morning came like a thunderbolt as a shock to the citizens of Ormond, Daytona and the whole of Volusia county.

Simple but impressive Episcopal funeral services over the body were held Sunday afternoon at the cottage in the St. Lucia orange grove, which was planted and owned by Mr.
Anderson. Cannon McGrath officiated at the funeral services and took the occasion to pay a glowing tribute to the man to whom a large number of friends had gathered to pay their final respects. Rev. Mr. Mc-Grath stated that if all young people who had been helped by Mr. Anderson could be present at his funeral
the big orange grove would be too small to accommodate them.

John Anderson was born in Portland, Me., in 1853. He came to Florida and took up a homestead just north of the present Hotel Ormond in February, 1876. Two years after locating here he was elected assessor
of Volusia county.

Shortly after his arrival here Mr.
Anderson began the culture of oranges and at the time of his death was the owner of the big St. Lucia grove.

In company with J. D. Price he built the Hotel Ormond and opened it January 1, 1888. Later the hotel was sold to H. M. Flagler, was enlarged and became a part of the East Coast hotel system. Anderson &
Price managed the hotel until four years ago, when Mr. Anderson resigned to become the manager of the Alcazar at St. Augustine, Mr. Price
continuing with the Hotel Ormond.

Mr. Anderson remained with the Al-cazar for one season and since then has devoted his time during the winter months to the subject of good roads, about which he was an enthusiast. He assumed the management of the Mt. Washington and
Mt. Pleasant hotels at Bretton Woods, N. H., when these two hostelries were built about 1895. He was the owner of the Bretton Inn at Ormond Beach.

In New England Mr. Anderson was
as much of a good roads enthusiast
as he was in Florida and the accessible roads by which automobiles are able to make the trip from any part of New England to the two big hotels
at Bretton Woods were built as a direct result of the agitation started and continued by Mr. Anderson.

For several years he has been intensely interested in having the highway from New York through to Jacksonville, and the full length of the Florida East Coast built and spent the most of his energies in working up enthusiasm for this enterprise.
Just a few days before his death Mr.
Anderson wrote a letter to the Florida East Coast Automobile association urging renewed activities along the line of good roads for this section of the East Coast.

Mr. Anderson was a man known, either personally or by reputation, by every person in this section of the state and was a man who was held in the highest esteem by everybody.
His sudden demise is taken as a personal loss by every resident of the county.

The body was sent by express on Monday afternoon to the place of his birth, Portland, Me. It was accompanied by Ned Jordan, a lifelong friend of the deceased, and was accompanied to the depot by practically all the pioneers of Ormond, who went to bid him goodbye the same as if he was going back to New England for the summer months.

Mr. Anderson was a bachelor and is survived by two sisters.

CONTRACTS ARE SIGNED FOR FLIGHTS.

AGREEMENT WITH CURTISS MADE BY THE HOTEL MEN.

LAST OBSTACLE OVERCOME AND MCCURDY WILL GIVE AT LEAST FIVE FLIGHTS HERE LAST WEEK IN MARCH.

The contract between the Hotel
Men's Association of Daytona and Glenn H. Curtiss has been signed signed by both parties and the last obstacle to bringing Aviator McCurdy here for a series of exhibition flights the last week in March has been overcome.

The contract calls for at least five flights, beginning March 28, one of the flights to be a race with an automobile on the beach and another to be a flight from the beach over the city of Daytona.

The first flight will be March 28
if the weather conditions are favorable and the other flights will follow
within the next two days or as soon thereafter as the weather conditions will permit.

McCurdy and his machinicians will come here several days in advance of that time to have their air machines carefully overhauled and everything in readiness for the first flight.

The committees of the hotel men's association and the board of trade will make an effort to have the aviation attraction well advertised
through the state and a drawing card
for many people to come to Daytona at that time.

With cuts across the backs of both hands, on his arms and shoulder Ben Holding appeared in the mayor's court Monday morning to answer to the charge of disorderly conduct and fighting with Lenora Williams, who was also somewhat battered up as the result of numerous blows with a fence picket, wielded
by Williams.

Both are colored residents of Midway and the fight occurred at the hall in Midway. The evidence shows that the woman wielded the knife to good advantage in carving Holding, while the man was not slow in the use of the picket weapon on the body of the woman.

Each was assessed a fine of $20
and costs.

Six white men were in court to answer to the charge of speeding their automobiles within the city limits. J. G. Dreka, Carl L. Miller
and B. H. Footing, all of Deland, were fined $5 and costs each on the charge of speeding. Billie Van Dorn

Baker was fined $2 and costs for concerned today is still Friday and the standpatters are opposing the consideration of the omnibus appropriation bill.

By a vote of 75 to 43 the house voted today to suspend the rules and make the remaining days of this session a suspension of days. This action was taken to end the filibuster
led by Congressman Mann.

At 1:15 o'clock this afternoon the house passed the omnibus appropria-

By L. C. DEMAREE.

One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who has ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphaltum-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed and surf-packed sand but realized that it is a world beater, a world-wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls flit by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Placid, Pellucid Halifax River.

Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy verandas looking out upon her bosom gamey food fishes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with duck and coot and snowy-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon the waves; watch that lubberly old white headed pelican pouch a fat mullet, and that fish hawk struggling upward with his floundering load he snatched from the water.

See the beautiful launches, spick and span, with hampers and lockers bulging with refreshments, both solid and liquid, ready for a cruise upon the beautiful surface. Take out your field glass and sweep the river from Ormond bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

The Enchantingly Picturesque Ridgewood.

Ridgewood avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies and the wide spreading branches of the heavy-trunked live oaks extend their giant arms across the magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from the tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with ruffled draperies, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.

See the glistening leaf of the grand magnolia which nature has varnished as no artist's brush ever could; and the cabbage palms with their burdens of showy fruit and swaying palmas; see the lovely holly with its exquisite berry; see the climbing vines run riot in the trees; see the cryptocarpus forms which gain a foothold on the great oaks and stately palms, and surely you will join in the chorus and say that this is a world wonder for beauty.

Surpassing Beauty of Our Cottage Homes.

No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps, commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottages. The owners of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them, and, as the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another so do our homes differ in outward appearance and structural beauty from one another. There are no monotonous rows of strikingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering, "What next?"

It is not only the exterior of many of these homes which rivets attention; within they are models of convenience, and the finishing and furnishing give evidence of the elegance and cultivation of those who worked it all out. Indeed, it is the interior arrangement and artistic furnishing and snodging, more than the exterior appearance that gives a surpassing charm to Daytona homes. This feature justly merits prominence as another wonder.

Streets and Pavements the Most and Best.

Why the Architect of the Universe chose to give Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed, but that such is a fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the finishing touches which have wrought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.

Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkage. The entire city becomes a great park, with driveways intersecting, miles upon miles of driveways so good as to attract motorists from all over the continent.

And as for the pavements, pavements that look and act like granite—where else between the eastern and western seas are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? The pavement question stands with the street as one of the chief drawing cards. Till some unheard of place reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.

Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Fruit. Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or even callous one may be to many things, the mere mention of "flowers and squirrels, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and pricked ears.

For every visitor with a spare goober there is a bunny ready to come and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and know into the meat, casting furtive, saucy glances at you meanwhile.

Flowers. Usually fresh and blooming the year 'round, you are reminded of Goldsmith's comely where smiling spring its earliest visit paid and summer's lingering blossoms are delayed.

In one yard roses of variegated hues predominate; another household has a penchant for the poinsettia and the premises are aflame; another is hidden in a jungle of tall cane. Variety is the spice of life and here is where you find it.

The birds flit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.

As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are scores of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes, which for beauty, prolificacy and all desirable qualities would truly astonish you.

The Fastest Autos and The Finest Out.

The seventh world wonder, do you ask? Come, whether from Missouri or from Maine, from Kalamazoo or Timbuctoo, and you will be "shown." Here is where the world's record for speed is broken with every recurring season. Autos, the fastest, the fastest, and the finest are on daily parade and the big show is as free as the pure artesian water from the thousands of flowing wells. It is a continuous show with a constantly shifting scene.

Everything goes, from a 2-horse power up to a 200-horse power, and all degrees of speed from a canter to a two-mile-a-minute clip. You will probably catch the spirit, when you do the roads and the beach are yours. The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down into your wallet only for coin for auto, and bed and board.

This is no fanciful picture; it's all here. It is drawing other thousands and holding them enthralled, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

PICTURESQUE PORT ORANGE

PORT ORANGE IS a pretty little village situated five miles south of Daytona on the Daytona-New Smyrna hard-surface road, the scenic highway of the East Coast. The town is located on the Halifax River, and is connected with the peninsula opposite by a bridge.

The town is well laid out and has many pretty homes. A large number of tourists and winter residents make Port Orange a winter headquarters, one of the several attractions being the excellent fishing.

A short distance west of Port Orange are the remains of the old Dunlawton sugar mill, a place that is visited every year by hundreds of tourists. One time all the country west of Port Orange, surrounding the old mill, was a vast indigo and sugar cane plantation. The mill was operated extensively in those early days but has been in disuse for forty or fifty years.

A very interesting drive from Daytona is by ocean beach to the approach of the Port Orange bridge, across the bridge, and then passing through the principal street of Port Orange to the ruins of the celebrated old sugar mill, returning to Daytona by the road on the mainland.

NEW BOOKS RECEIVED AT PUBLIC LIBRARY.

Editor Daily News:—I enclose a list of new books which have just been placed on the library shelves. Some have been donated and some purchased. From this time on we may hope for a number of new books.

An order has been sent to New York for Freckles, Wood Carver of Olympus and several other good books.

If the "Book Shower" materializes about March 23, and the library department of the Palmetto club carries out its plan of fostering the library, I see better days in store for us. We are open from 2:30 to 5:30, six days in the week and library is a very popular place.

List of New Books—The Wild Olive, The Fighting Chance, Peter, The Double Garden, The Garden of Slender Swords, The Circular Staircase, Caleb West, The Mistress of Shenstone, The Little Brown Jug at Kildare, Lewis Rand, The Roman Road, The Under Current, The Colonel of the Red Huzzars, A Parish of Two, Rebecca of Sunny Brook Farm, Mex. A Girl of Limberlost, Richard Yea and Nay, The Rosary.
Mrs. C. H. Abbott, Librarian.

MADE A FINE CATCH OF TROUT SUNDAY.

Royall Houghton and L. T. Moore, regular season guests of the Gables hotel, made a fishing excursion up the river Sunday in John Troy's launch, the Lollie, and returned with a fine string of fish, including 25 trout and two bass. One of the trout weighed over seven pounds and all were of good size. The fish were all caught within less than two hours and the sport had to be abandoned while at its best because of the approach of darkness.

Excellent Hunting
and Fishing
NEW SMYRNA
FLORIDA

NEW SMYRNA is situated fifteen miles south of Daytona and is an ideal spot reached from Daytona by a hard surface road winding through one of the most picturesque parts of Florida.

With its ancient ruins dating back to a time when the history of man runneth not, interlaced with wires of the modern telegraph and telephone, its miles of shell streets as hard and smooth as a floor and over-arched by hoary forest giants that grew in stately grandeur during the lapse of bygone centuries, New Smyrna is truly a place of romance and rest.

All nature here is very inviting to the tourist and pleasure-seeker. Here too is to be found the best fishing and hunting in the state of Florida.

The people are thrifty, the business men enterprising, and all unite in extending the welcome hand of hospitality to strangers. There are five church edifices for white people and an equal number for the colored population; the town has an excellent high school, a splendid public library, and up-to-date business houses.

There are any number of pretty homes for the permanent population, which numbers close to 2,000, and some very fine winter residences. There are good hotels and boarding houses where you can find accommodations to meet your requirements. Adjoining New Smyrna is as fine a section of vegetable land as can be found anywhere. This land has been divided into small farms which can be bought at reasonable prices. Some of the finest celery grown in the state is raised on this land. All other vegetables grow in abundance, and here, too, is the home of the famous Indian River oranges.

SEABREEZE and DAYTONA BEACH, two enterprising and progressive towns on the Halifax Peninsula, are geographically one although incorporated as separate municipalities. The towns parallel the peninsula north and south for a distance of from three and one-half to four miles, and extend east and west from the surging seas of the Atlantic Ocean to the Halifax River, the beautiful tide water stream that sets them apart from Daytona with which they have close communion by means of three bridges, as well as a half-hour ferry service.

Seabreeze and Daytona Beach are essentially summer and winter resorts and are making hundreds of new friends every year among those who desire to escape the discomforting extremes of heat and cold, and their hotels and boarding houses are now receiving splendid patronage from the most discriminating class of tourists.

The ocean itself, with its marvelous beach, hard as macadam and smooth as a floor, is the greatest attraction, although earth, air and sky seem to have entered into a combination to enhance its every charm. The beach is the famous automobile race course where every world's straight-away record has been made, and all these records it continues to hold without rival.

The beach has a width of 300 to 500 feet and can be used from two hours after until two hours before high tide, thus giving an average of seven or eight hours for automobilizing some part of each day.

Seabreeze and Daytona Beach each have a permanent population of approximately 1500. Sanitary ordinances are strictly enforced, streets and sidewalks are well kept, and new streets are being opened as fast as the increasing population demands. Besides hotels and boarding houses there is ample cottage accommodation for all winter visitors in both towns.

All the attractiveness of Seabreeze applies to Daytona Beach, the two towns being so similarly situated. The development of Daytona Beach has been truly phenomenal as its sister on the north, and each year there is a substantial growth. The great sand dunes have been leveled and handsome homes have been built for both winter and all-year-round occupancy.

History in Toys.

The history of the world is crystallized in the children's toys. Each great war leaves soldiers in the nursery cupboard dressed correctly to a strap and button. This has always been so. As each successive age in the world's history has gone by the weapons of that age have passed to the hands of the boys as toys. There are in our great museums miniature crossbows, spears and shields. Toy armor as finely in laid and engraved as any real accoutrements is occasionally to be seen, and old prints show the boys playing with such figures. Even the children of the French revolution had their toy guillotines.—Collier's.

The Dollar.

There was a time when dollars were minted in England. In March, 1797, the mint issued stamped Spanish dollars worth 4s. 9d., but they were called in seven months later. It was from the Spanish coin that America got the idea of her almighty dollar, but the name was made in Germany. At least "thaler," of which "dollar" is a corruption, was. The original thaler was the silver guldengroschen, coined in 1518 by order of Count Schlick from the silver of Joachimsthal, in Bohemia, and known at first as the "Joachimsthaler." Thus the name means etymologically "of the valley."—London Chronicle.

An Obliging Doctor.

"Doctor, I've tried everything and I can't get to sleep," complained the voice at the other end of the telephone. "Can't you manage to do something for me?"

"Yes," said the doctor kindly. "Just hold the wire and I'll sing you a lullaby."—Success Magazine.

Just Rebuke.

Billy—What would you do if I should kiss you? Milly—I'd slap your face. Billy—Then I won't. Milly—You coward!—Philadelphia Record.

Cutting.

"Miss Keenly has an awfully sharp tongue, hasn't she?"
"I should say so! She's cut most of her friends off her list with it."

Goodness does not more certainly make men happy than happiness makes them good.—Laudor.

He Won the Trick.

"Oh, George, dear," she whispered when he slipped the engagement ring on her tapering finger, "how sweet of you to remember just the sort of stone I preferred! None of the others was ever so thoughtful."

George was staggered but for a moment. Then he came back with: "Not at all, dear. You overrate me. This is the one I've always used." She was inconsistent enough to cry about it.

Legislators' Perquisites in Spain.

Spanish deputies, some of whom are agitating for a salary, already enjoy certain privileges. They are entitled to frank their letters and to travel on all the railways in Spain free of charge. Unlike the French deputies, however, they have to pay for refreshments consumed in the chamber, the only item supplied gratuitously being barley sugar. Of this there is an unlimited supply, and lady visitors to the chamber are always presented with a packet of this delicacy, which serves to sweeten the debates.—London Chronicle.

Too Many Words.

"I told you in so many words not to dare to take a drink today," said Mrs. Jawback.
"That's what I did, m' dear," agreed Mr. Jawback. "You tol' me in so many words that I couldn't remember 'em."—Boston Traveler.

Fifty Years Ago Today. Feb. 20.

The Confederate congress at Montgomery passed a bill providing munitions of war. Rumors were current that Fort Sumter had been attacked. The United States congress voted seven new steam warships for the navy.

Eugene Scribner, celebrated French dramatist, died.

Twenty-five Years Ago Today.

Forty-six women, representing twenty-three states and under the leadership of Susan B. Anthony, appeared before the judiciary committee of congress to plead for a sixteenth amendment giving woman the ballot.

ORMOND-ON-THE-HALIFAX

ORMOND is 5 miles north of Daytona, on the west side of the Halifax River. The location permits of drainage and sanitation; the elevation is such and ideal for winter homes. A wide bridge connects Ormond with Daytona Beach.

Many fine homes are maintained on either side of the river, most of them surrounded by subtropical flora and shrubbery, besides hearty orange and other citrus fruit trees.

Ormond has many attractions—excellent automobilizing, good fishing, safe boating, and many pleasant drives.

At Ormond Beach is located the large Hotel Ormond, and a lesser sister, the Iretton Inn. The former occupies a position overlooking the Halifax, and the latter has as its outlook the magnificent beach and the broad Atlantic.

Besides the broad, smooth beach there are many drives for oranges and automobiles around Ormond—drives through groves of orange trees; drives through tropical forests to Spanish minstrel drives to an ancient Causeway built by slaves; drives to long plantations of beautiful settlers; drives to places where the most interesting of these plantations is at the mouth of the Halifax and known as Moundgrove. It is one of the finest groves on the East Coast of Florida and is amid very pretty surroundings. Moundgrove is on the Daytona-Saint Augustine road.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Bach and daughter, Miss Hannah, returned Saturday from a week's visit at Palm Beach, Miami and Havana, Cuba, and are again at home with Mr. Loken and other members of the family on Second avenue. They experienced a very rough passage on the return from Havana to Key West, in fact it was said to have been one of the worst on record and nearly all on board were seasick, but with this exception they enjoyed a very pleasant trip.

Mr. Smith is having two large barges and 300 self-dumping crates built for him by W. N. Stenson & Sons, for bringing shell from the mounds on the New Smyrna road and delivering it to the teams at this place. ### Not a Savant.

A Harvard man told at a dinner in Cambridge a story about ignorance. "Some sailors were being banqueted in Philadelphia at St. George's hall," he said, "and a young bluejacket, pointing to a superb silver Easter, said: 'Waiter, bring up that 'ere chandelier.' 'That ain't a chandelier,' the waiter answered, laughing. 'That's a cruet.' 'Well, never mind what it is,' said the sailor. 'Bring it up. We ain't all been to college.'"

Both Affected.

"Whenever she gets to thinking how much they're in debt it affects her nerves." "Huh! The way it affects her husband is singular." "How singular?" "Just singular; it affects his 'nerve.' He tried to borrow a hundred from me today."—Catholic Standard and Times.

The Language of Love.

"Has he proposed yet?" "Not in so many words." "That's no answer. Proposals never do come in words. They consist of sighs, 'hem, haws and gurgles.'"—Cleveland Leader.

RECORD AUTOMOBILE TRIP FROM EUSTIS TO DAYTONA.

PARTY MADE RUN THIS MORNING BY THE CROWS BLUFF ROUTE IN ABOUT THREE HOURS' TIME.

An automobile party consisting of H. R. Ferran, H. A. Ferran, A. B. Russell and Rev. D. K. Pendleton made a record automobile run from Eustis this morning, leaving that place at 5:20 and arriving in Daytona at 8:20 a. m. The journey was made by the new Crows Bluff route which now affords a shorter means of communication than that by way of DeLand and the road is said to be very good, which was demonstrated by the three hour run of this morning.

Messrs. Ferran, who are prominent young business men of Eustis, were in Daytona in the interest of the water carnival and regatta to be held on Lake Eustis next Wednesday, Feb. 22. The party was in the city but a short time. They returned by way of DeLand, as they wished to see parties in that city.
